Opinium Research Results / Tables March 2015

1,979 Online Interviews (GB Nat. Rep)
1,689 Likely Voters
Field: 18th to 19th March 2015

If the Base is not otherwise specified, the table is based on the full sample and is representative of all GB adults

Where column base is below 50 respondents, figures should be seen as indicative only and we advise against using these when reporting unless appropriate caveats are given

Q2 Summary
And for each of the following, please tell us how believable or not you find each proposal to be.

By "believable" we mean something that you think the government will implement and which is likely to be successful should the Conservatives remain in government after the election.

	Raising the tax-free allowance (the amount you can earn before you pay income tax) from £10,600 to £10,800 and to £11,000 in 2016	Freezing petrol duty and scrapping the planned increase in September	Making the first £1,000 of interest on savings income tax free	Raising the ISA tax-free allowance from £15,000 to £15,240	A new "help to buy" ISA for first-time buyers in which the government will give £50 for every £200 you save	Cutting beer duty by 1p, cider by 2p, whisky by 2p and freezing wine duty	Changing the law to allow pensioners to access the money they may have put into an annuity	Reducing the 'surplus target (how much more money the government will take in than spend once the deficit has been eliminated) for 2019 from £23bn to £7bn so the government can spend more
